

Ask the Contract:

Answer: Hopefully Jane can rely on the fairness of her supervisor, but the contract also supports her.

“All teaching work assignments shall be made as equitable as practicable among the teaching staff so that workloads will be as nearly equal as possible.....” page 22 Section 11(a)

Crossword Puzzle:

Across

3. SILVERSTEIN—Draws an artistic bead with her torch
5. LINGER—Administrates office treat rotation
13. CLIFTON—Trains more students as the mercury dips
14. MUELLER—Helps students be successful
15. SCHNETTLER—Works inboard, outboard, never overboard
17. WARFIELD—Pursuing a career instructing chocolate eating
18. RENTMEISTER—Nursing mission is to help others
19. DAMON—Former student of her co-workers
20. JACOB—Assists the nursing students
21. SCHOELLER—Knows the scientific body of instruction
22. EDWARDS—Working with her is a cardiac experience
23. BRODBECK—Has his live wire students in line
24. CLARK—Fabricates a good story when necessary

Down

1. WEILAND-HARE—Provides good counsel on all things gardening
2. BLOCK—Gives a good accounting of himself
4. VAIL—Communes with blue ribbon watermelons
6. NELSON—Helps youth with their options in nursing
7. GALL—Aids students becoming aides
8. VOGL-RAUSCHER—Supervises the campus managers on economic issues
9. CRIMMINGS—Former chief in charge of water warriors
10. STRYSICK—Starts the nursing students off on the right extremity
11. LINDE—Assists office staff in eating treats
12. PEARTREE—Certifies and instructs in a red hot field
16. HURLBERT—Reaches out to offer health training